

Ca. 1911-02

FACTS

Document type: Letter draft

Language: Engelsk

General comment:
Brevudkastet er skrevet af Edith Willumsen

Sender's location:
Sevilla (Spanien)

Recipient's location:
Berlin (Tyskland)

Mentioned people: Francisco Goya
Francisco de Zurbarán

Archive:
J.F. Willumsens Museum
Arkivkasse: A/I/3 - CDE

TRANSCRIPTION

GRAND HOTEL
(ANTES CECIL) SEVILLA

The 18 of January I did send you a letter, but as I have received no answer
I must believe it is lost, and I will repeat my letter –

Since I wrote my first letter to you . I have bought two pictures for myself
One a head of the savior by Zurbaran . a study for one of the pictures at the museum here in Sevilla – The other one is by Goya – a half figure, a man in a red mantle

very characteristic for Goya an[d]
his Style -

OMTALTE VÆRKER

 🖼️kendt kunstner (Willumsens tilskrivning: Francisco de Zurbarán); 🖼️Kristushoved* (Udat.) 🖼️F. Willumsens Museum, G.S. 81

🖼️ 🖼️kendt kunstner (Willumsens tilskrivning: Goya el. en af Goyas elever); 🖼️En Mand i rød Dragt. Kardinalen* (Udat.) 🖼️lie på lærred, 55.5 x 45 cm. 🖼️F. Willumsens Museum, G.S. 1901

GRAND HOTEL

(ANTES CECIL)

—o—SEVILLA

The 18 of January I did send you a letter, but as I have received no answer
I must believe it is lost, and I will repeat my letter—

Since I wrote my first letter to you I have bought two pictures for myself
One a head of ^{the savior} ~~of~~ ^{Barbarian}.
a study for one of the pictures at the museum here in Sevilla. The other one is of Goya. a half figure of a man in a red mantle ~~standing a c~~ very characteristic for Goya and his style -