Dear Sir,

Your val. letter of the 19th inst. came duly to hand. We do not think, that it does matter anything, that we have sent your things to Mr. Georg Hulbe Jungfernstieg as it is the same firm as Lindenstrasse and we think all will arrive at the right address.

You did not mention in your letter giving us the address of Mr. Hulbe any street, so we have directed the consignment to Jungfernstieg, as there is "the Verkaufsstelle" as we could see in one of our books for addresses. We shall send you still in some time our account for the difference of freight, as you write us in one of your letters; till today we could not get this account from our forwarding agent.

Believe us, dear Sir
Yours very faithfully
Dr. Eduard Schulte
