

Ca. 1911-02

FAKTA

Dokumenttype:
Brevudkast

Sprog:
Engelsk

Generel kommentar:
Brevudkastet er skrevet af Edith Willumsen

Afsendersted:
Sevilla (Spanien)

Modtagersted:
Berlin (Tyskland)

Omtalte personer:
Francisco Goya
Francisco de Zurbarán

Arkivplacering:
J.F. Willumsens Museum
Arkivkasse: A/I/3 - CDE

DOKUMENTINDHOLD

Willumsen har ikke fået svar på sit første brev til Cassirer, og han sender derfor et nyt. Siden han skrev det første brev, har han købt to værker i Spanien til sig selv.

TRANSSKRIFTION

GRAND HOTEL
(ANTES CECIL) SEVILLA

The 18 of January I did send you a letter, but as I have received no answer I must believe it is lost, and I will repeat my letter –

Since I wrote my first letter to you . I have bought two pictures for myself One a head of the savior by Zurbaran . a study for one of the pictures at the museum here in Sevilla – The other one is by Goya – a half figure, a man in a red mantle very characteristic for Goya an[d]

his Style -

OMTALTE VÆRKER

 ■ kendt kunstner (Willumsens tilskrivning: Francisco de Zurbarán); ■ Kristushoved* (Udat.) ■ F. Willumsens Museum, G.S. 81

■ ■ kendt kunstner (Willumsens tilskrivning: Goya el. en af Goyas elever); ■ En Mand i rød Dragt. Kardinalen* (Udat.) ■ lie på lærred, 55.5 x 45 cm. ■ F. Willumsens Museum, G.S. 1901

GRAND HOTEL

(ANTES CECIL)

—o—SEVILLA

The 18 of January I did send you a letter, but as I have received no answer
I must believe it is lost, and I will repeat my letter—

Since I wrote my first letter to you I have bought two pictures for myself
One a head of ^{the savior} ~~of~~ ^{Barbarian}.
a study for one of the pictures at the museum here in Sevilla - The other one is of Goya - a half figure of a man in a red mantle ~~standing a c~~ very characteristic for Goya and

his style -